

CITY NEWS.

JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT.—Friday, October 30.—Commonwealth vs. U. G. Damaron; jury and verdict two years, and motion for new trial by defendant.

Commonwealth vs. R. F. Cunningham; continued.

Commonwealth vs. Oscar Roberts; continued.

Commonwealth vs. Lucinda Bennett; jury, and verdict three years.

Commonwealth vs. Archibald Copeland; turned over to the military authorities.

Commonwealth vs. David and John Schroeder; continued.

Commonwealth vs. William Beyerbach; continued.

Commonwealth vs. George Pratt; note prosequi.

Commonwealth vs. Henry Maple; jury, and verdict four years.

Commonwealth vs. Charles LeClair; note prosequi.

Commonwealth vs. Huffer Chris; continued.

Commonwealth vs. James Donnelly alias Kennedy alias Parrell; jury, and verdict.

Commonwealth vs. Sarah Thompson; jury, and verdict.

Inquest No. 157.—Held October 29th, 1863, near the first toll gate on the Preston-street plank-road, on the body of Lewis Mangum, aged 24 years, a member of company G, Eighteenth Kentucky volunteer Infantry.

Verdict—"Came to his death at the place above cited, at or about 6 1/2 o'clock p. m., October 29th, 1863, from a wound in and upon the right side, caused by a ball fired from a carbine in the hands of Theodore Hunt."

As C. Hunt, C. J. G.

Mangum was killed under the following circumstances: He, in company with another soldier, went into the bar-room of Mr. Thos. Hunt and demanded liquor. Mr. H. told him that he could not sell him any as it was a violation of orders. Mangum used some very abusive language to Mr. H., and struck him with a cane. Theodore had a carbine in his hands, and when Mangum struck his father he shot him. The ball entered the arm about three or four inches below the shoulder; then ran up towards the head and entered the body. There it lodged, causing death in a few minutes.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The following is a list of the marriage licenses issued for the week ending October 30:

Jerry Quilan and Kate Dorgan.

John Cochran and Fannie C. Steffy.

Peter Knobloch and Kate Folger.

Michael McGuire and Annie Connell.

Arthur McGinnis and Bridget Kilgus.

Geo. R. Shanks and Sarah C. Collins.

H. S. Hobbs and Julia C. Melone.

Wm. H. Hays and Sarah A. Melone.

A. B. Vandike and Elizabeth H. Davis.

C. C. Smith and Elizabeth Smyser.

H. C. Massey and Sarah Rostetter.

J. A. Thompson and M. Dewitt.

L. H. Lyne and Alice Fairfax.

Samuel Weber and Mary Warner.

Morris Wellenstuck and Fanny Ows.

Chris. Dorr and Susan Rostetter.

H. Dorr and Susan Rostetter.

Thomas Glenn and Bridget Nally.

Frederick P. Brown and J. C. Dugre.

Wm. Felker and Catherine E. Stinson.

Lawrence Connolly and Bridget King.

Daniel Quille and Ellen McCallie.

Andrew Parrell and Fannie Bell.

Mike Frederick and Mary Carroll.

Thos. Kagan and Bridget Holland.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Friday, Oct. 30.—Freeman Morton, charged with being drunk and disorderly; discharged.

Ellen Gibbons, drunk and disorderly conduct; $100 for three months.

Richard Hunt, charged with killing Louis Mangum; continued until to-morrow morning.

John McConne and Pat. McNally, charged with shooting and wounding a soldier; continued.

Jack, a slave of Mrs. Hamilton, stealing a lot of clothing and other articles; continued.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.—The following are the transfers of real estate made in the city of Louisville and county of Jefferson from the 27th to the 30th inst.:

E. R. Hughes' trustee to J. R. Pirtle, 163 feet front on the corner of Nineteenth and Henry streets, $1,900.

Wm. Sinton to Emily Sebastian, 40 by 200 feet on Chestnut, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, 1,600.

E. R. Hughes to J. R. Pirtle, lots Nos. 12, 13, 14 and 15 in Rowan's enlargement to Louisville, 1,900.

D. C. Jones to A. H. Hussey, 112 acres in Jefferson county, Ky., 1,900.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Evansville Journal states that Charles D. Beatty, formerly engineer on the D. B. Campbell, was found dead in his berth on that boat Wednesday. He had been drinking the night before, and the coroner's jury who investigated the case, found that he came to his death by intemperance. Beatty was a resident of this city, where his friends reside. He was thirty-three or thirty-four years of age, and was believed to be unmarried.

BURNED TO DEATH.—Miss Mahoney, a young lady about sixteen years of age, living with the family of Mr. Morris, in Indianapolis, was burned to death on Monday evening last. She was standing before the fire, and stooping over to adjust the dress of a child, her clothes caught in the blaze, enveloping her in flames almost in a moment. She lived but a few hours, suffering the while the most intense agony.

THEATERS.—Owing to the disagreeable weather the attendance at both theaters last night was only moderate. At the Louisville to-night Miss Sallie St. Clair closes her engagement, appearing in the "Weep of the Wish-ton-Wish" and the "French Spy." At Wood's the "World of Fashion" will be performed, Miss Jane Cobbs sustaining the leading character.

Frank Hughes, formerly of the rebel army, returned to his home in Covington a few days ago. Upon his arrival there he was placed under arrest by the military authorities, but upon being arraigned before them, he exhibited a pass from Gen. Rosecrans, which showed that he had taken the oath, whereupon he was released from custody.

Rev. William Johnson, of Ghent, Ky., will preach at the East Bay church, on Jefferson, between Preston and Jackson streets, this evening at seven and a half o'clock. He will also preach at the same place to-morrow (Sunday) morning, at eleven o'clock, and at seven and a half p. m.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was a most disagreeable day, it having rained steadily all day, and the streets were exceedingly muddy. If this rain has extended also it will have the effect of raising the river and letting the coal out.

A series of robberies have lately occurred at a tavern on Market street, south side, above Preston. Thursday night five or six persons were robbed at this house of various sums, amounting in the aggregate to $200.

Sixty postmen passed down the river from Cincinnati yesterday.

For letter list see fourth page.

ACCIDENT ON THE KENTUCKY CENTRAL RAILROAD.—The telegraph has already informed us that an accident occurred on the Kentucky Central railroad on Thursday. We since heard the following particulars: A train, composed of five passenger cars and about thirteen box and platform cars, left Covington at half-past six o'clock Thursday morning, for Lexington, having on board about four hundred soldiers belonging to the First Ohio heavy artillery, in addition to the usual number of passengers. While the train was passing over a "hill," about one mile this side of Butler Station, and twenty-seven south of Covington, a rail broke, causing four of the box cars and one passenger car to run off the track, killing one soldier and wounding twenty-one others, besides a brakeman. The following is a list of the casualties:

Killed.—Ralph King, Co. L.

Wounded.—Corporal William H. Smith, Co. L; Isaac Troth, Co. H; William G. Fenstermaker, Co. L; H. R. Walker, Co. H; very severely; James Ferguson, Co. L; Geo. Wilks, Nelson Reed, George W. Lyngrover, Co. K; Henry Newman, Henry C. Mays, Co. L; Wm. Tanner, Co. H; George M. Moore, Co. L; Geo. Venters, Isaiah Reynolds, Stephen Arthur, Thomas J. Davis, Co. H; Isaac Gault, Co. L; Samuel G. Martin, Co. H; Sylvester L. Smith, Jefferson Hoggins, Co. L; William Shrock, brakeman.

As soon as intelligence of the accident reached Covington a special train was sent to the scene of disaster. Upon the arrival of the train at the spot where the catastrophe occurred all the wounded were placed on board and taken to Covington. Eight or ten of them are very severely injured, and two or three will probably die.

A complete list of the killed, wounded and missing in the massacre at Baxter's Springs, Arkansas, is as follows: Killed, 83; wounded, 7; missing, 5; total, 95. As the missing men have not come in, it is more than probable they too are slain. The casualties were divided as follows: Company A, Fourteenth Kansas, 17 killed, 3 wounded, 5 missing; Company A, Third Wisconsin, 1 wounded; Company C, killed; Company G, 1 killed; Company H, 3 killed; company I, 23 killed; 4 wounded. Brigade band, 18; clerks, orderlies and teamsters, 11 killed; citizens, 3. Three officers killed.

A LONG-LIVED FAMILY.—Seven children of Rev. Ambrose Dudley, deceased, who removed from Virginia to Fayette county, Ky., in the year 1780, are now alive. Their respective ages are as follows: James, 86; Jephtha, 84; Polly, 80; Benjamin, 78; Peter, 70; Ambrose, 76; and Thomas, 71. Colonel Ambrose Dudley was formerly an old resident of Cincinnati, but now resides in Kookuk, Iowa. Polly Dudley is living in St. Louis, Mo., and the remainder of the children in Fayette county, Ky.

It is said that the prairie fires during the high winds of Saturday week did more damage in Kansas by burning fences, crops and hay than all the taxes levied in the State during the last year will amount to. The fences on the road between Big Springs and Lawrence are mostly destroyed. A large amount of corn in the fields, hay in the stacks, sheds, barns, &c., were burned up. Most of the farmers lost from $500 to $600.

Some property at Evansville belonging to E. H. Fairchild, of New Orleans, has been entered at Indianapolis for confiscation. Mr. Fairchild, we learn, has been a decided Union man from the first, but like all the Union men of New Orleans, he was swept into the whirlpool of secession as they were everybody reading at New Orleans at the time secession broke out in the South.

SHOOTING A DESERTER.—We have mentioned the report that a deserter was shot at Delphi, Ind. The unfortunate occurrence happened near Walton, on the Kokomo road. Two brothers named Knight had deserted from the army. A. M. Lucas, from Laporte, in attempting to arrest them, was shot in the thigh, and in return shot and killed both deserters.

The Zanesville (Ohio) Courier says that eight victims of the "Wanted—Correspondence" mania left that city on Thursday to see their pretended lovers who have been corresponding with them from the army. Two were arrested and sent back. It is to be hoped that the others may be caught before it is too late.

A large part of the wealthy population of Nashville were under Breckinridge, in Bragg's army, at Chickamauga, and out of six hundred under that General thirteen hundred were killed. Three-fourths of the ladies of the Episcopal church are in mourning.

Four of the crew of the privateer Florida, who left that vessel at Brest, France, arrived at New York on Tuesday, as seamen on the English ship Frances A. Palmer. They were immediately arrested.

A THOUGHTLESS BOY.—I shall never forget an incident of my childhood by which I was taught to be careful not to wound the feelings of the unfortunate. A number of us school boys were playing by the roadside one Saturday afternoon, when the stage coach drove up to a neighboring tavern and the passengers alighted. As usual, we gathered around to observe them. Among them was an elderly man with a cane, who got out with much difficulty, and when on the ground he walked with curious contortions. His feet turned one way, his knees another, and his whole body looked as though the different members were independent of it, and of each other, and every one was making motions to suit itself. I unthinkingly showed him a look at old rattlesnake-bones! and the other boys took up the cry with mocking laughter, while the poor man looked at his head with an expression of pain which I can never forget. Just then, to my surprise and horror, my father came around the corner, and immediately stepping up to the stranger, shook his hand warmly, and assisted him to walk to our house, which was but a little distance. I could enjoy no more play that afternoon, when ten-time came I would gladly have hid myself, but I knew that would be vain, and so tremblingly went into the sitting-room. To my great relief the stranger shook his hand warmly, and remarked pleasantly to my father as he introduced me, "Such a fine boy was surely worth saving." Now the words were not his, but I felt that my father had often told me the story of a friend who had plunged into the river to save me as I was drowning, while an infant, and who, in consequence of a broken neck, was rendered cripple by inflammation of the spine; and this was the man whom I had made a butt of ridicule and a laughing stock for my companions. I felt that while I could no longer give many dollars to have the memory of that event taken away. If ever you are tempted as I was, remember that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Interview Between John Minor Botts and the Rebel Secretary of War.

[Special Dispatch to the New York Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, Friday, Oct. 23, 1863.

One of the most curious scenes of the war of the Potomac sends the following: If you just returned with the army on its backward march I gave me an interesting account of his visit to John Minor Botts. He found that gentleman enjoying his beautiful farm of 2,100 acres, which he has recently purchased for $100,000 in Confederate tokens. Mr. Botts had just met with the rebel Secretary of State, and gave the following account of Judah P. Benjamin's end of the war:

In the course of the conversation, Mr. Benjamin asked Mr. Botts how long he thought the war would last. The latter replied that he could tell if he only knew how long the South could raise men. When they could no longer fill up their ranks, the war would stop. In this address to his opinion, Mr. Botts said that he had just met with the rebel Secretary of State, and gave the following account of Judah P. Benjamin's end of the war:

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to have an apple in his hand, cutting off a slice, said: "The rebels represent Kentucky, which you have lost." Another slice represented Tennessee, and a third Louisiana. Mr. Botts said that while no longer a come of sport whereby the feelings of others are wounded, you may be laying up for your future painful recollections that will not leave you for a life time.

Mr. Benjamin said that he did. Mr. Botts, who happened to

